

iSaloni 2013 _ Preview

At the next appointment with the design, iSaloni 2013, Progetti will present cuckoo and clocks with a strong aesthetic impact, real pieces of furniture for home and office.

Following the guidelines for this year, only partly revealed at Macef and Ambiente, the company will focus on new materials, bright colors, style, young design that 'makes a difference'.

Here, images and descriptions of some products that will be exposed.

Circle Clock _ design Studio Kuadra

A clock with a linear design but soft at the same time, revolutionary and innovative as they are completely covered in MOSS by Verde Profilo, a lichen natural that can be used indoors, even in rooms without natural light. Nature is at home with Circle Clock.

4stagioni _ design Alessia Gasperi

The cuckoo 4stagioni, elegant and discreet, with its four variants pays tribute to their seasons that take place during the year: the green brings to mind the spring, the leaves newborn in the trees, the buds of flowers, orange us accompanied, however, in hot weather, summer to pass on the golden sand on the seashore, and the clock is ticking and we are in autumn with red, the intense color of the falling leaves and finally the blue that brings us into the winter season, between the snow-capped mountains and waterfalls of ice make magic everywhere.

Kandinsky _ Barbero design

With this cuckoo Projects pays tribute to the great Russian artist creator of abstract painting.

It is made of three intersecting circles (clock, cuckoo clocks and pendulum) of different sizes and colors reminiscent of the art of Kandinsky, which was inspired by the balance of power and weight between the geometric elements and their interaction with the colors. Just the circle took on a special meaning for the artist, who said, 'the circle, I use it so much in the last period, sometimes can not be called anything but romantic.'
